Based on what you learned about your character in the book, fill in the information chart below.

Your book will not tell you the character's height or weight, so you will need to make a reasonable estimate for these two sections in the chart. If your book does not state the colour of your character's eyes or hair, you can choose these characteristics yourself.

Distinguishing features are characteristics that make a person look unique (examples: wears glasses, has a scar on face, has a beard, wears a top hat).
